The latest from behind the scenes at Selkirk High School...

Selkirk High School's new head team is composed of Andrew Cochrane (head boy), Molly Byers (head girl) and deputies Hannah Richardson, Ashley Robertson and Emma Jamieson

Prefect Amy Hill

CONGRATULATIONS to the Selkirk High School head team. It is with great pleasure and excitement that we announce the appointment of Molly Byers and Andrew Cochrane as student heads this year. Congratulations also to Hannah Richardson, Ashley Robertson and Emma Jamieson, who will be supporting them as deputies.

senior prefects on their appointment. Well done Chloe Armstrong, Faye Brown, Findlay Carson, Jay Earsman, Logan Fairbairn, Ella Forster, Sean Martin, Melissa Murray, Charlie Bell, Amy Hill and Christina Sieker.

All senior prefects will be playing a leading role in the school - not only by exemplifying our 'values in action' ethos in all they do - but also by working with staff to put together a programme of house events which include and motivate all students.

They will also be completing their SCQF Leadership Award through their leadership of S6 committees in order to have a positive impact on the experience of all their younger peers at the school.

These committees include health and wellbeing, digital learning, legacy and charities, communication and events.

It's going to be a great year!

The team came through a rigorous selection process, which included staff and student voting, applications, leadership research as well as team work tasks.

We are in no doubt that they will be a fantastic team and the staff at SHS are inspired to hear of their 'values in action' vision for their younger peers: they are already planning to make a difference by developing a head team programme which promotes enjoyment, participation, confidence and mental health

Congratulations also to all
