S6 had their final day before starting study leave

S6 last day

On Friday, our senior pupils had their last day of classes before starting study leave for their SQA exams. We said a (not quite) goodbye to S6.

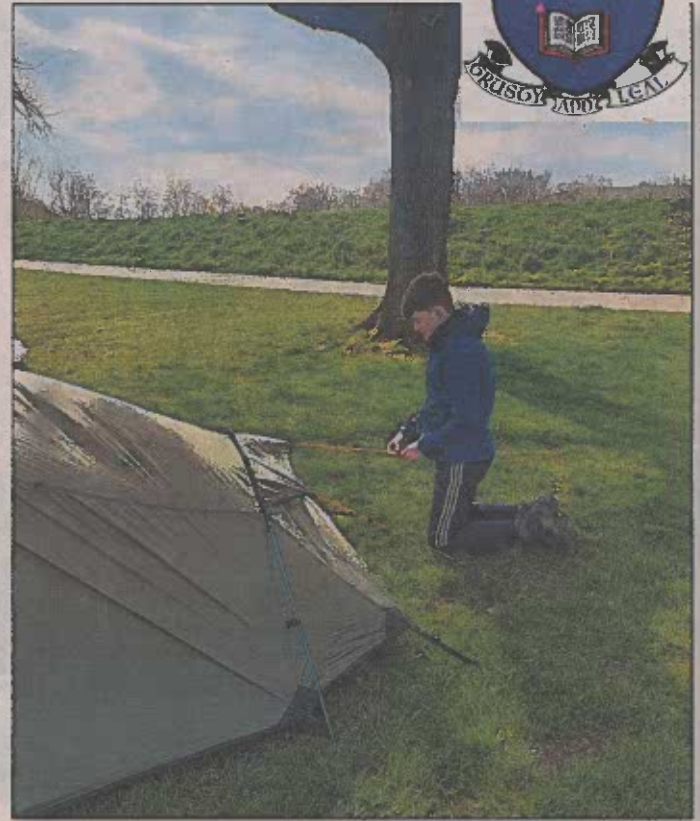

Duke of Edinburgh

Third year Duke of Edinburgh expedition skills were on top form recently. Pitching their tents in pretty high winds was a challenge they overcame as a group together. The students were rewarded with hot chocolate that they cooked safely on gas stoves to warm up. Roll on the expedition in June.

Willkommen In Selkirk High

This week, Selkirk High was delighted to resume the annual visit from Conrad-Graf-Preysing-Realschule in our twin town of Plattling, in Bavaria, Germany. As part of a week long visit to the town, 14 pupils and two staff joined S3 classes for two days. All students welcomed the visitors enthusiastically and introduced our guests to a full range of new experiences, both in classes and at break times. Additionally, the visit included a tour of the school, Scottish country dancing and baking shortbread. The lunchtime football game resulted in a loss for the hosts, but excellent sportsmanship was shown. Although the visit was brief, friendships were quickly formed despite the language barrier, with students helping each other and joining in fully in class activities. Some of the German students even thought they would prefer to attend school in Scotland!
